Acquedotto del Fiora: amendment to articles of association and shareholder agreements enables the company's consolidation within the ACEA Group perimeter

Rome, 7 October 2019 – The Shareholders' Meeting of Acquedotto del Fiora, the company that manages the integrated water services for 55 municipalities in the provinces of Grosseto and Siena (together forming the ATO 6 "Ombrone"), 40% owned by ACEA, was held today. The Shareholders approved an amendment to the articles of association and shareholder agreements that will enable full consolidation of the company, currently consolidated using the equity method, as part of the ACEA Group perimeter.

The decision adopted by the Shareholders' Meeting comes within the positive context of business cooperation between ACEA and the Institutions representing the local communities where Acquedotto del Fiora operates, with a view to ensuring growth and sustainable development.
